While plaintiff was asleep on the living room couch, the defendant police officers knocked down the front door and streamed into the apartment with guns drawn.

24. Plaintiff was lawfully present at the location when Defendants intentionally assaulted and battered the plaintiff herein as specified above in the course of effectuating a false arrest without probable cause to believe the claimant herein had committed any crime or offense.

26. Plaintiff was roughly cuffed hands behind his back, and transported to the 52nd Pct, and from there to Central Booking, and remained in custody for 48 hours. Thereafter he was released, and appeared at court 3 times until the case was dismissed on 1018/13.

27. Plaintiff had not resisted or assaulted the defendants in any way, and such force as was used against him was unnecessary, unreasonable, and excessive.

28. At no time during the events described above was the plaintiff intoxicated, incapacitated or disorderly, or a threat to the safety of himself or others. He had committed no criminal offenses.

35. At all times during the events described above, the defendant police officers were engaged in a joint venture. The individual officers assisted each other in performing the various actions described, and lent their physical presence and support and the authority of their office to each other during said events, and failed to intervene to stop one another. .

36. All of the above acts were done both individually and in concert and intentionally and while acting under color of law, and in the scope of employment with THE CITY and the NYPD.
